

PHOTO: MANUJ VERMA

TERRIFIC JAM: Members of Celtic Ragas Band

Melody for a cause

PYTs: (L-R) Anu Thampi, Snigdha Khurana and Larissa Gatkowsky

DRINK BEFORE YOU SPEAK: (top) Caroline Reddemann; (above) Sally Goggin with Abdul Rahman; (below, L-R) Ayoung Lee, Yejin Ban and Jane Chun

WHAT

Green Ragas, an Indo-UK concert organised by the British Council in association with The Energy and Resources Institute (TERI) and Indus live Arts to celebrate the Yuva Meet 2010.

WHERE

The British Council, Kasturba Gandhi Marg

WHO

Celtic Ragas Band led by UK-based music composer Chinmaya Dunster, performed at the event to raise awareness regarding environment-related issues. Present at the do were climate change champions — students from India as well as countries such as

WAAH, KYA BAAT HAI! (L-R) Dr Sudhanshu Sinha, Charlie Walker and Dr GS Gujral

Germany and South Korea — recognised by the Yuva Meet 2010. We saw British Council's Director Programmes India and Sri Lanka, Charlie Walker, British Council's Climate Security Project Regional Head, Dr Sudhanshu Sinha, Director education India and Sri Lanka, Sally Goggin, and TERI's Associate Director youth education and action, Ranjana Saikia.

—AROMA SAH

CALL OF THE SHAWL:
Ranjana Saikia
